Payment of credit

Credit is paid out on 1 June 2022. Note, however, that child benefits are divided into two payments.

The amount shown at the top is the total result of the public dues. Click the line labelled "til greiðslu/inneign" (due/refund) to see the settlement of individual payment dates. The amount of some dues is divided between several due dates for payment. Some may need to make payments on later due dates despite having received a refund on 1 June.

Examining calculations and criteria

If you click income tax and municipal tax, you will be able to see the manner in which income tax is calculated according to your recorded income in your tax return.

In addition, you will be able to see how much municipal tax you pay to your municipality.

The tax withdrawn from your salary by your employer during the year is deducted from your calculated income tax and municipal tax.

In the event of any difference, such amount will be refunded or collected on settlement. A debt may form if e.g. the municipal tax in your municipality is higher than the national average or if your personal tax credit has been set too high.

Comparable information can be obtained for all taxes and dues that are levied.

Division of tax payments between the state and municipality

The page contains a pictorial representation of the manner in which the taxes levied on your income are divided between the state and your municipality.

When you open the tax assessment you will see whether any amount is due or whether you are entitled to a refund. Debts are readily identifiable, as they are in red and have a minus symbol, while credit is displayed in green.

Collection of debt and payment plans

Income tax and local tax debts are automatically divided into 7 due dates. Payments may be distributed over a longer period by negotiating a payment plan or settling the debt over a shorter period.

You can apply for an extended payment plan by logging on to Ísland.is and completing the online application form.

As a rule, the collection of debts is carried out by employers (wage payers), who are responsible for deducting the requisite amount from wages. Self-employed individuals and those who are unemployed will receive a payment note and a claim to their online banking account.

Credit shall be set-off against any overdue claims. Please note that the setting-off authorisation applies to jointly taxed spouses as regards public duties and municipal fees. Child benefits are not set-off against other claims except in the case of overpaid child benefits.

Child benefits

If you click on the information pane for child benefits, you will be able to see the criteria used to calculate the amount and what effects your income has on such calculations.
